Introducing Skipper

Typical Collegian

at

INDIANA STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE . . . TERRE HAUTE

1946 SYCAMORE

SKIPPER PRESENTS THE 1946 YEARBOOK PUBLISHED BY AND FOR STUDENTS OF INDIANA STATE . . . MARTHA JEAN GORDON, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF . . . VIRGINIA BURNETT AND MABEL FINLEY, CO-BUSINESS MANAGERS.

"WE, THE TRUE

STATESMEN, ARE PROUD OF STATE"

STATE IS OUR SCHOOL

Long shadows on clear white snow . . . the heaviest in years . . . reportedly over eight inches . . . snow burdened roofs of the Administration Building form an unspoiled vista . . . Ad. Building rebuilt in 1888 after being destroyed by fire.

A study in contrasts . . . shrubbery complements the campus . . . a sturdy sycamore leans shading the graceful curve in the drive in front of Residence and Book Store . . . young trees and well-kept lawns . . . ivy clinging to Stalker Hall . . . flaming cannas dot the flower bed.

Summertime . . . Parsons Hall in a garb of greenery . . . seen through the leaning sycamore branches . . . . four stories . . . . crowded to capacity during this year . . . men again! . . . stories of wonderful companionship . . .

studying . . . eating . . . midnight parties . . . Sekulovich's icy grapefruit juice . . . Schaller and Bickley's antics . . . Carr's innerspring mattress . . . Firmani and Mangel playing tricks on one another.

The center of social life . . . the Student Union Building . . . new activities directed by Student Union Activities Bureau . . . new social life schedule . . . mixers . . . formal dances . . . teas . . . a buzz of activity . . . chatter in the grill . . . clatter in the cafeteria . . a sonata from the formal lounge . . . boogie-woogie from the ballroom . . fame on the stage of the Union Building auditorium . . . a splash in the swimming pool . . . strategy on the billiard table.

STUDY? . . . YES WE DID . . .

Beth Nash, John Dunk, Charles Margason, and John Wolford in the wood pattern-making class . . . industrial arts department . . . Sylvan A.
